Orange County Section Membership Application and Renewal Form
PO Box 1283, Anaheim, California 92815-1283

Mission Statement: OC-NCNW promotes education, ethnic pride, self-development, achievement, and cultural enrichment for African American women, their families, and communities.

Orange County Section: The OC Section, chartered in 1988, works diligently to lead, develop, and advocate for women of African descent and their families in Orange County, California. Our success lies in our collaborate advocacy, volunteerism, service, and leadership efforts through partnering with local and national organizations.

Monthly Meetings: We meet the third Sunday, from 2:30 to 4:30pm, at the Downtown Anaheim Community Center and via Zoom. The meetings are open to all members as well as visitors.

Questions: Please direct all inquiries to ncnwoc88@aol.com.
